

Spas of America's Top 100 Spas of 2025

🕒 January 5, 2026 👤 Christine Rowlands

Spas of America has announced its annual Top 100 Spas of 2025, recognizing the most sought-after spa and wellness destinations across North America. The list reflects sustained consumer demand for wellness travel, even as overall U.S. travel declined by an estimated 15% over the past year.

"Consumers continue to prioritize wellness experiences that support health, renewal, and meaningful time away," says Craig Oliver, President of Spas of America. "We're seeing strong interest in both trusted spa destinations and thoughtfully designed new experiences."

Sunstone The Spa at Agua Caliente Named #1 Spa of 2025

For 2025, Sunstone The Spa at Agua Caliente in Rancho Mirage, California, is the #1 Spa.

A serene oasis in the Southern California desert, Sunstone Spa offers a peaceful retreat from the energy of the adjacent Agua Caliente Resort Casino in Rancho Mirage. Sandstone walls, palm trees, and desert succulents set a calming tone throughout the 10,500-square-foot spa, creating a relaxed and welcoming atmosphere in the heart of Greater Palm Springs. Inspired by its namesake in Greek mythology, the Sunstone is said to carry positive, healing energy, an idea reflected in the spa’s restorative treatments, which leave guests feeling refreshed and renewed after every visit.

“Being named the #1 Spa of 2025 is a tremendous honor,” says Daniel Spencer, Director of Spas for Sunstone Spa and The Spa at Séc-he. “Our focus has always been on creating a wellness experience that feels restorative, authentic, and welcoming.”

The Top 100 Spas of 2025

The Top 100 Spas of 2025 include 72 spas in the United States, 22 spas in Canada, five spas in Mexico, and one spa in the Dominican Republic. The number of U.S. spas represented declined by 14.3% compared to 2024, reflecting evolving travel preferences and growing interest in regional and international wellness destinations.
